Tours of Historic FORT MONTGOMERY at Rouses Point, just north of the bridge

Been there before? You haven't seen anything until you've toured with Jim Millard!

Experience a rare opportunity to explore the ruins of this historic Civil War era fort; the property is privately owned and access is prohibited to the public. These tours will be especially exciting since the ruins were recently cleared of decades of accumulated brush and vegetation. The ruins will be accessible in ways not seen since the 1940's.

The tours will be guided by Jim Millard, Fort Montgomery historian, Publisher of America's Historic Lakes and author of Fort Montgomery through the Years, The Secrets of Crab Island and Lake Passages.

Sponsored by the Rouses Point-Champlain Historical Society

Saturday, October 11, 2008

There will be two tours: 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. The non-refundable fee for this tour is $30 for Historical Society members and $35 for non-members. Each participant will receive an autographed copy of Jim Millard's book about the Fort. Tour will be held rain or shine. No children under the age of 12 will be allowed on the tour for safety reasons.

Please make check or money order to the RP-C Historical Society and send to the Historical Society at P.O. Box 144, Rouses Point, NY 12979. For more information about this rare opportunity or to register for this event, contact Geri Favreau at (518) 297-2064 (gerifavreau@yahoo.com), Mary Racicot (518) 297-6138 (sara@primelink1.net) or visit the America's Historic Lakes website (<http://historiclakes.org>).

The walk into the Fort and the tour of the ruins is quite rigorous. Please take this into account when registering. Wear clothes and shoes suitable for walking through tall grass and rough terrain. All participants will be required to sign releases as there are safety issues.
